Man arrested after car chase

State police arrested a Rochester man Sunday after he led officers on a lengthy chase through Monroe and Genesee counties. Robert M. Crawford, 42, was charged with first-degree reckless endangerment after the chase.

A state trooper tried to stop Crawford for speeding when his vehicle was traveling at 96 mph in a 65-mph zone on Route 531 in Gates about 10:10 a.m., State Police said. Crawford led troopers and sheriff's deputies on a minute chase through Rochester and then on Interstate 490 to the town of Bergen, Genesee County.

Crawford pulled into a trailer park on Route 19 in Bergen and surrendered to police. He was to be arraigned in Gates Town Court on Sunday.

About 170 run in Fair Share 5K

About 170 people participated in the Fair Share 5K Fun Run on Sunday, said a city spokeswoman.

The participants signed Rochester Fair Share Coalition letters to support the group's campaign seeking state funding for Rochester, Colleen McCarthy of the city Communications Bureau said in an e-mail.

The total number of letters sent to state leaders in Albany has climbed to more than 12,000, McCarthy said.

Car partially flips, two hurt

Alcohol appears to be a factor in a single-vehicle accident that sent two people to the hospital Sunday, State Police said.
