200 cycle 100 miles for missing, exploited children

Staff report

About 200 bicyclists were riding through the streets of Monroe County today to raise awareness of missing and exploited children.

During their 100-mile trip, the cyclists planned to stop at schools in Rochester, Penfield, Fairport, Pittsford and Henrieville.

The bike ride aimed to raise funds for the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children New York branch, which also works to educate people about child abduction, molestation and sexual exploitation.
